Which we would inform the Monron readers that we will sell for CASH at prices as low as tongue can tell, or one could wish. We do not make money enough on you in one sale so that we can afford to lose your trade, but we must sell you so that you will be pleased with your bargain; if you are pleased, we know you will come again. In order to make this a sure thing, we have established a golden rule :

And then again, READY CASH does for us what can't be accomplished with a credit system. We lowered prices? As you have need of goods in our line, remember us, for we are bound to do the right
